

A Lie on Its Face.

Phillipsburg Herald.

Of all low down mud slinging for political purposes which we have seen lately, a little the meanest is that of A. D. Gilkison, the Democratic candidate for judge of this district, and his friends, when they accuse Hon. L. K. Pratt of using idiotic language about secret societies. No man with a thimble full of brains would make such statements as they claim were made by Mr. Pratt. Members of secret societies are not fools, and such chaff will not catch them, for they can readily see that this is a lie upon its face. Try something else, gentlemen.

The reason why Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a favorite with so many people is because it can always be depended upon. Its prompt and effectual cures of coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough have made it standard, and those who have used it prefer it to any other. Sold by B. Wagner & Co.

You feel tired, do you? "Yes," said the languid man, "as though I had been born tired, and with a bad taste in my mouth." "It's not rest that you need," said the doctor, "as much as a dose of some good liver pills. Try a dose or two of St. Patrick's Pills; they will brace you up and make you feel brand new before three days." Sold by B. Wagner & Co.

A matter of consequence to every person is his own health and the health of those depending upon him, of all the ills we are subject to, coughs and colds are of the most frequent occurrence; the time to treat a cold is when the very first symptoms appear, or when taking cold the most convenient method is to always have Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at hand and take it according to directions. It is for both adults and children. This remedy has the endorsement of the people as a safe and reliable medicine for cough, colds and croup. Sold by B. Wagner & Co.
